Foreword

In 1993, Keswick Mountain Rescue Team continued to be one of the busiest Teams in the country. Its continued high standard of service to those who venture on the hills owes much to our unassuming leader, Mike Nixon. We were delighted when Mike's contribution to Mountain Rescue was honoured by the Queen, with the award of the M.B.E. Mike has been involved in more than a 1000 rescues during his career with the Team, which must make him the most experienced person in Mountain Rescue.

We set out our stall this year to try to enable us, eventually, to move into a new purpose built Headquarters by the time of our 50th anniversary in 1997. We were delighted to receive generous support from Mrs Ada Hillard, who has been for some time a benefactor to the cause of Mountain Rescue in the Lake District. It is entirely due to her that we will be able to purchase the land for the project. The official Appeal will get under way during 1994, and we are pleased to announce that Chris Bonington has agreed to be Chief Patron.

On behalf of the Team, I thank all those who have supported us this year in any way, and wish you safe days among the hills.

Mick Guy, Chairman

Team Leader's Report

Having hinted about retiring from the Team leadership for two years at this year's AGM I am standing down in the safe knowledge that there are a number of team members more than capable of taking my place.

With 70 or 80 rescues a year the Team is quickly building up a wealth of experience amongst its members. In 1952, when I joined the Team, I think we had 5 rescues in total that year. This year, 1993, we had 8 rescues in 7 days over the Christmas break and when asked by a reporter "Surely the Team was getting dispirited and weary?" I told him-"not a bit of it, they were just as keen on the eighth rescue as they were on the first," - to which he replied - "Well that reflects great credit on them." I agreed, and said I was very proud of them.

I am proud and privileged that I have had the honour of being team leader for the last 12 years and would like to express my deep appreciation and thanks to my deputies, officers and officials, and all Team members, past and present.

I know the vast amount of time that goes into keeping the Team's affairs running smoothly and the hours spent training, but it all becomes very rewarding and worthwhile when we finish another rescue and know we have helped to ease the pain and anxiety of another climber or walker and possibly even saved a life.

I wish my successor the same goodwill and co-operation that I have always had and advise him that Keswick is not a team that needs leading, just encouraging once in a while.

Lastly I would like to pay tribute to all team members wives, especially my wife Val, for her support and forbearance over the last forty years. I've lost count of the times our social life has been disrupted, but she always recognised the importance and urgency of Mountain Rescue.

Mike Nixon, Retiring Team Leader

Mike Nixon, MBE

Mike Nixon has been a member of the Keswick Team for over forty years and Team Leader for the past twelve years having taken over from George Fisher.

Mike has become a well know face in the local community and in the mountaineering world in particular. He worked for many years in George Fisher s shop and more lately at a local outdoor centre.

Mike s style of leadership must stand as an example to all Mountain Rescue Teams. With his sound judgement and diplomacy Mike has led the Team through hundreds of difficult situations and always, remarkably, without a single dissenting voice.

Despite the frequent temptation to criticise those who get into trouble through foolishness or irresponsibility Mike has respected the feelings of those involved.

As the demands placed on voluntary rescue Teams increase dramatically we must all remember that we are a voluntary organisation based on the willingness of walkers and climbers to go out and help their own. This is the principle that Mike stands for.

Training Report

The development in Team training has continued through 1993 with further consultation taking place between the Lake District Teams. The focus of this has been the Rescue 2000 study which has placed training as the top priority for the future of Mountain Rescue throughout the British Isles.

The computer based logging system has proved very workable and has effectively identified training needs both for the Team in general and for individuals in particular. This invaluable aid will greatly assist as we strive to take the standards of competence even higher in the future.

First Aid training for the Team has taken a significant step forward with an extensive programme of instruction being run over the winter months by Dr Peter White and Dr Will Ponsonby. This scheme will conclude with an inter team training weekend and final exam.

The fundraising effort has required a short break in the training programme but the weekly sessions have now resumed. The provision of a new headquarters will provide a boost for Team training which is currently held in cramped and unsuitable accommodation.

Equipment Report

1992 saw us doubling up and upgrading much equipment, giving us two fully equipped lead vehicles. On most incidents one lead vehicle and our Transit attend, leaving the other fully equipped vehicle to attend any other incidents that may occur.

Whilst 1993 has not seen such an outlay the cost of maintenance etc, remains considerable. There are also ongoing replacement costs, many items of equipment having a limited life, ropes, slings, harnesses, etc, deteriorate whether used or not and are replaced, at the latest every three years.

On the subject of maintenance, our present base facilities are becoming increasingly inadequate for our present escalating workload. For instance, try drying a casualty bag, two 600 foot ropes, a couple of 300 foot ropes, several sacks and their contents, in a room with one storage heater, that is also the control room. Indeed it is the only room except for the unheated garages. You may begin to appreciate the problem.

Chris Francis

Keswick Mountain Rescue Team

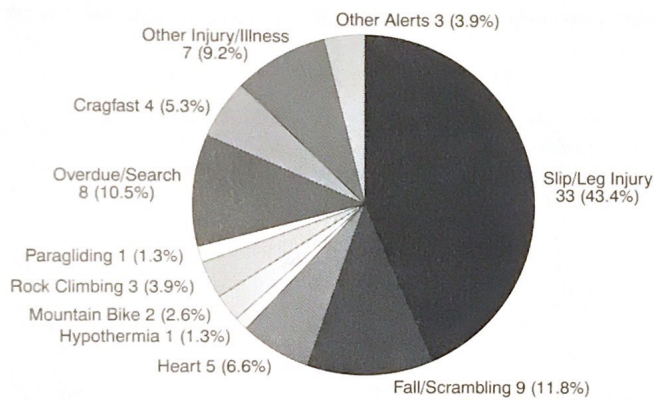

Search Dog Involvement in Incidents outside the Local Area

1	13 February	Kirkby Stephen MRT	Two walkers became benighted when attempting to cross Dufton Fell, and were reported missing by the local Youth Hostel. Two Keswick dogs and their owners attended, but the party turned up before they were deployed.
2	20 March	Langdale/ Ambleside MRT	A husband and wife separated from their party of six to walk slowly to Kirkstone Pass Inn from Threshwaite Mouth, above Patterdale. They failed to arrive. Three Keswick dogs and their owners and three other team members assisted in the search which lasted for twelve hours. In the dark and driving rain the couple had completely reversed their route, and were eventually found outside the search area. The husband was found first, and although severely hypothermic and distressed, was able to direct the searchers to his wife, who sadly died of hypothermia on the north side of The Knott.
3	13 June	Kendal MRT	A male epileptic was reported missing in the Levens area. One Keswick dog and its handler attended. The casualty was eventually located in Barrow, having got on the wrong coach.
4	30 July	Kendal MRT	A 40 yr old male was reported missing in the vicinity of Humphrey head. One Keswick dog and its handler set off to attend, but the body of the missing person was located while they were on route.

FREDDIE MILLS

It was with great sadness that we heard of the death last August of Freddie Mills at the age of 87.

Born in Keswick, he was a well known walker and climber before the war. After a period living in London he returned to Keswick and joined the team in 1959. He helped start the collecting box system of fund raising and his enthusiasm and commitment for the work of the Team and helping other climbers and walkers in need was undiminished.

We will all miss his cheerful personality and familiar figure in climbing breeches, blue anorak and tyrolean hat.

Brian Martland

FRED WINWOOD

Fred, a team member for many years, unexpectedly died in January. A keen, reliable member of the team Fred will be sadly missed.

Fred was a strong individualist, occasionally outspoken but with a keen sense of fairness. He was at his best when out for a long day on the hill enthusiastically enjoying what he termed as "his mountains". I, personally will remember the big walks we did together in 1993. The Dodds, Fairfield Round, Honister to Ennerdale via The Gables, Pillar, Steeple, etc. All superb days in excellent company.

Thanks Fred. God bless you.

Deed of Covenant

A Deed of Covenant is a particularly useful method of making a donation to Keswick Mountain Rescue Team for people who pay Income Tax. As the Deed of Covenant lasts for a minimum of four years it also has the benefit of giving the Team a regular income. If you would like to help the Team in this way simply complete the form and return it to the address below.
